The Collect of the Kids & Invitation to Children's Chapel

Children ages 4 to 5th grade are invited to listen for a brief introduction to the day's liturgy or lessons. They then depart for Children's Chapel, returning for the Eucharist.

The First Lesson

Jonah 3:1-5, 10

Lector A reading from the Prophet Jonah.

The word of the Lord came to Jonah a second time, saying, "Get up, go to Nineveh, that great city, and proclaim to it the message that I tell you." So Jonah set out and went to Nineveh, according to the word of the Lord. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly large city, a three days' walk across. Jonah began to go into the city, going a day's walk. And he cried out, "Forty days more, and Nineveh shall be overthrown!" And the people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast, and everyone, great and small, put on sackcloth. When God saw what they did, how they turned from their evil ways, God changed his mind about the calamity that he had said he would bring upon them; and he did not do it.

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Response

Psalm 62:6-14

Choir and congregation sing refrain; choir sings verses.

Choir text is an interpretation of the text from the BCP.

1. God alone is my rock and my salvation, God, my fortress, I shall never fall, for God shall deliver me and God shall be my honor. For God, my soul waits in silence.
2. Trust in God at all times, O my people, pour your hearts out to the Lord, you God, for God is your refuge, God, your shelter and your glory. For God, my soul waits in silence.
3. Do not trust in the path of wealth or robbery, do not set your heart on riches; in God alone is found true, steadfast love and power. For God, my soul waits in silence.

The Second Lesson

1 Corinthians 7:29-31

Lector A reading from Paul's first letter to the Corinthians.

I mean, brothers and sisters, the appointed time has grown short; from now on, let even those who have wives be as though they had none, and those who mourn as though they were not mourning, and those who rejoice as though they were not rejoicing, and those who buy as though they had no possessions, and those who deal with the world as though they had no dealings with it. For the present form of this world is passing away.

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Gospel

Mark 1:14-20

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

After John was arrested, Jesus came to Galilee, proclaiming the good news of God, and saying, "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near; repent, and believe in the good news."

As Jesus passed along the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net into the sea—for they were fishermen. And Jesus said to them, "Follow me and I will make you fish for people." And immediately they left their nets and followed him. As he went a little farther, he saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John, who were in their boat mending the nets. Immediately he called them; and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men, and followed him.

Deacon The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Prayers of the People

Intercessor Guided by Christ made known to the nations, let us offer our prayers for the church, for the world, and for all people in need.

A brief silence.

For the body of Christ gathered throughout the world and for all servants of the gospel, that following Jesus, the church may live out its calling every day. For Justin, Archbishop of Canterbury; for Michael, our Presiding Bishop; for Sam and Jennifer, our bishops; for Imogen, Andrew, and Nancy, our clergy. For Chapel of the Cross, Chapel Hill; Church of the Holy Family, Chapel Hill; and Church of the Advocate, Chapel Hill. For The Church of South India (United), humbly we pray.

People Have mercy, O God.

Intercessor For the well-being of creation, for plants and animals, and for all that God has marvelously made, that we may act as wise stewards of Earth, our home, humbly we pray.

People Have Mercy, O God.

Intercessor For those lacking food or shelter, for those who are sick or grieving, and for those who are imprisoned or homebound, that God may console all who suffer, especially those on our parish prayer list (found on page 10), and those we name now silently or aloud:

A brief silence follows as the congregation offers prayers of intercession.

Intercessor For our neighborhood, for visitors joining us for the first time or returning, and for those absent from this gathering, that all who seek to know God may be nourished by word and sacrament, humbly we pray.

People Have Mercy, O God.

Intercessor In thanksgiving for those who have died, whom we entrust to God's eternal love, humbly we pray.

People Have Mercy, O God.

Celebrant Merciful God, hear the prayers of your people, spoken aloud or in the silence of our hearts, for the sake of the one who dwells among us, you Son, Jesus Christ our Savior.
Amen.
