About Robert ...

Robert Holmes is one of the most extraordinary, creative, inspiring, and exciting upcoming names in contemporary gospel, breaking down doors in his quest to bring the true word of God to a sinful world. Robert is a Gospel/Christian artist, singer-songwriter, drummer and entrepreneur. Robert has developed a distinctive sound he calls "life changing music," mixing spiritual lyrics with an upbeat sound and bringing his 20 plus years as a drummer at Church, High School and University. It's also what has inspired him to bring his message to the world, both through his personal social networking site and his online store where he markets high demand women's hair extension bundles. A Robert Holmes concert really is the best showcase of his conviction, his display of giving back to his community, and his overwhelming excitement about his message. Jesus that is.

In 2013, Jason formed J. Bethel & Spoken For, a group of gifted and anointed singers who Bethel calls "innovative, energetic and God-driven". Members Zshawntanique V. Starks, Angela Davis, Philip Pettigrew, Nicole Stephens, LaToya Nakima Williams and Cynthia Stanfield give Bethel the perfect background to execute his God-breathed songs.

"ALL IN" was the group's first foray into the world of recording. The project's singles, released in 2012, caught the attention of some in the industry which set the scene for the upcoming project. "You're God", a lively, up-tempo praise jam, is the lead single from the upcoming release. With a thumping beat and vibrant vocals, the track makes praise contagious. Penned by Bethel, it's an unforgettable tune, a perfect opener for praise teams on Sunday morning.

"Spoken For" is a song that will touch your heart, mind and spirit. From the melodic tones of the piano, strings, guitar, ect. To the dynamic vocals acrobatics, For" will teach you the power of Love and salvation through Jesus Christ.!

The Privilege of Grief: Honor, Power, Glory

By, Dr. Edith R. Mahone

Get Your Copy Today!

We do not grieve as the world because we have a hope in Christ. The Privilege of Grief unfolds as a series of intimate journal entries from the supernatural perspective of a hope in Christ. We learn to find the honor, power, and glory of God in the darkest hours of our lives. Mourning is a time of emotional expression but grief is an opportunity to heal the emotional wound. Through the pages of this book, the author systematically takes our hand and walks us down a path of healing. A revelation in a book, this powerful ministry resource tool proves earth has not sorrow that heaven cannot heal.

Dr. Eric L. Holmes

The Power of the Seed!

The rule of reciprocity holds true in most areas of our lives--when we receive a blessing, we are more likely to give back. When you plant and sow your seed, if you have the right intent and commitment, you can expect the blessing of a harvest.

If you are unsure of how to move forward in your appointed influence, The Power of the Seed will guide you in recognizing your ability to help others, who will then help you in return. Through personal testimony and biblical references, Dr. Eric Holmes reminds us to be patient and unceasing in our journey to do good in the word of God. The journey may not be short or easy, but it's all part of the process--a cycle that begins again and again. Stand firmly in your faith, live by example and spread His message to unlock the magnificent power of the seed.

By the 11th grade Jason and David became the RSB group Men At Large. Their self-titled debut album and their follow up recording, One Size Fits All catapulted the young duo to the stratosphere singing, traveling the world and enjoying all the perks that being young recording stars afforded them. In 1996 the duo parted ways professionally allowing Champion to pursue a solo career in Gospel Music eventually connecting with Gospel trailblazer Kirk Franklin, with whom he was previously acquainted during the Men At Large era, Champion contributed to Franklin's Hero album and tour in March 2005.

In 2009 Champion's first solo album received industry recognition by the recording academy earning his first Grammy Nomination for Best Gospel Album of the year. Champion's single went on to reach #1 on Billboard's Gospel Single Charts. The album later released in Japan expanding his ministry with the success of two tours in Osaka and Tokyo including performances at Billboard Live.

Jason Champion prepares for this next chapter in his life, Champion has since signed with MyBlock Records and is now preparing for the initial offering entitled Until Forever. Until its release which is scheduled for Summer 2017, Champion is continuing to be faithful and obedient to the God he serves.

"I want to be known as a man that lives with integrity, loves fearlessly, laughs perfusely & honors God faithfully." \sim Jason Champion
