Studies in Genesis 12-50

*Go to the Land
I Will Show You*

WELCOME!

We're honored you've decided to spend the morning with us. Please know that we're here to assist you in any way we can with your quest to grow closer to God. Below, you'll find what we'll be doing during today's service. On the right panel, you can get an idea of what happens around Northpoint each week and things we're looking forward to.

WHAT TO EXPECT THIS MORNING

Today, we'll start by reading a short passage from the Bible to focus our attention on God. We'll sing songs of praise to Him. We'll pray to Him. We'll again read from the Bible. We'll hear a message from God to us from the Bible. Then, we'll sing a closing song.

TODAY'S FOCUS

This morning, we'll continue our sermon series in Genesis, Go to the Land I Will Show You. There, the focus will be on Joseph's dual role as a high-ranking Egyptian official with an even higher calling as a child of God.

Northpoint's Romans Roads VBS is NEXT week (July 11-15)! To pull it off, we still need food, drink, and baggy donations. Take a look at our insert in today's program to get the details. Scan our QR Code to register kids NOW!

Our next Congregational Meeting is Sunday, July 31, at 4:00 p.m. Among other things, we'll review the NP budget and the financial report. Join us!

It's almost time for a Northpoint All-Church Picnic! The family fun takes place Sunday, July 31, immediately after our 4:00 p.m. Congregational Meeting. As for food, we'll supply everything; just show up! We do need something from a few of you, however: your help. If you'd like to help with games, food prep, or help manage the food tables, please contact Michele Balga in the Church Office at 951.734.1335.

SERMON NOTES

JULY 3, 2022

Joseph Entered the Service of Pharaoh

Genesis 41:37-42:9a

Dr. Tony Chute, Lead Pastor

Overview: Joseph's ability to interpret Pharaoh's dreams results in his appointment as second in command over Egypt, a far cry from his life as a prisoner and even farther from his identity as the son of a Hebrew shepherd. In addition to this newfound status, Joseph is dressed in Egyptian clothing, given an Egyptian name, and married to an Egyptian woman. By the age of thirty, Joseph has reached the pinnacle of success with regard to his career and family such that the patriarchal promises to which he is entitled seem to fade into the background. However, Joseph has not forgotten God, nor is he ready to call Egypt his real home. Instead, Joseph serves faithfully under Pharaoh while at the same time using his God-given skills to bless others, particularly those in his own family. Thus the text reminds us that even as sojourners and strangers, we can be used by God to advance His kingdom no matter where we may reside.

01. As sojourners and strangers, let us be thankful for the country God has placed us in but let us not be dependent upon it for the advancement of the kingdom.

02. As sojourners and strangers, let us be involved in the work God has given us to do but let us not be complicit in things which work against the kingdom.

03. As sojourners and strangers, let us be a blessing to all people God has placed in our lives but let us give special attention to the members of the kingdom.

QUESTIONS FOR DISCUSSION & DISCOVERY

1. How does Pharaoh's response to the interpretation of his dreams result in the fulfillment of Joseph's dreams (see Genesis 37)? What does this series of events indicate about the providence of God? Think of how many (countless!) examples of God working things together in history we will understand once we get to heaven. How do such thoughts help you to trust Him now?

2. In what ways did Joseph become more identifiable as an Egyptian than a Hebrew in this text? How did his marriage to an Egyptian woman seem to cross the line between his Hebrew faith and his newfound status in Pharaoh's court? What examples can you think of today in which employers might advance their own causes to the detriment of an employee's faith? How would you manage such a situation?

3. What is the significance of the names of Joseph's two children? Does it seem to you that Joseph is on the verge of forgetting his father and brothers completely? Does the fact that he gives his children Hebrew names indicate a remaining connection to his family and their faith? How does the reference to Egypt as "the land of my affliction" signify that he does not consider Egypt as his final home?

4. How did Joseph's position in Egypt lead him to bless all of Egypt, other countries, and his brothers also (41:56-57)? How important is it for capable Christians to be in positions of influence in times of plenty and in times of famine or crisis? What happens when people who lack Christian values or ethics are in leadership positions in times of plenty or famine?

5. How can Christians around the world thank God for the country in which they were born or are living while at the same time not becoming dependent on it for the advancement of God's kingdom? How can Christians in adverse political circumstances be good citizens and faithful Christians?

Go to the Land I Will Show You

It's Almost Here!

Northpoint's Romans Roads VBS is the week of July 11-15! We're going to lasso verses in Romans that tell the story of the gospel—the good news that God saves sinners like me and you. That last part comes from our theme verse for the week: "God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us." – Romans 5:8

A few weeks ago, we told you that to pull off VBS, we need your help and offered a few ways to pitch in, most notably by serving and donating food and drinks. To your credit Northpoint, you stepped up and filled most all our service spots (there are a few left—contact Laura Flood at lflood@northpointcorona.org)! Thank you! And, even though you donated a lot of food and drinks, we're still short. You'll find what we need on the reverse side of this flyer.

One more thing: Continue to pray for VBS!

HOUSE OF THE LORD

Verse 1

We worship the God who was
We worship the God who is
We worship the God who evermore will be
He opened the prison doors
He parted the raging sea
Our God He holds the victory

Chorus

There's joy in the house of the Lord
There's joy in the house of the Lord today
And we won't be quiet
We shout out Your praise
There's joy in the house of the Lord
Our God is surely in this place
And we won't be quiet
We shout out Your praise

Verse 2

We sing to the God who heals
We sing to the God who saves
We sing to the God who always makes a way
'Cause He hung up on that cross
Then He rose up from that grave
My God's still rolling stones away

Chorus

There's joy in the house of the Lord
There's joy in the house of the Lord today
And we won't be quiet
We shout out Your praise
There's joy in the house of the Lord
Our God is surely in this place
And we won't be quiet
We shout out Your praise

Bridge

We were the beggars
Now we're royalty
We were the prisoners
Now we're running free
We are forgiven accepted
Redeemed by His grace
Let the house of the Lord sing praise

Chorus

There's joy in the house of the Lord
There's joy in the house of the Lord today
And we won't be quiet
We shout out Your praise
There's joy in the house of the Lord
Our God is surely in this place
And we won't be quiet
We shout out Your praise

HYMN OF HEAVEN

Verse 1

How I long to breathe the air of Heaven
Where pain is gone and mercy fills the streets
To look upon the one who bled to save me
And walk with Him for all eternity

Chorus

There will be a day
When all will bow before Him
There will be a day
When death will be no more
Standing face to face
With He who died and rose again
Holy, holy is the Lord

Verse 2

And ev'ry prayer we prayed in desperation
The songs of faith
We sang through doubt and fear
In the end we'll see that it was worth it
When He returns to wipe away our tears

Chorus

There will be a day
When all will bow before Him
There will be a day
When death will be no more
Standing face to face
With He who died and rose again
Holy, holy is the Lord

Verse 3

And on that day we join the resurrection
And stand beside the heroes of the faith
With one voice a thousand generations
Sing worthy is the Lamb who was slain
(repeat)

Forever He shall reign!

Chorus 2

So let it be today
We shout the hymn of Heaven
With angels and the Saints
We raise a mighty roar
Glory to our God
Who gave us life beyond the grave
Holy, holy is the Lord
Holy, holy is the Lord
Holy, holy is the Lord

YET NOT I BUT THROUGH CHRIST IN ME

Verse 1

What gift of grace is Jesus my redeemer
There is no more for heaven now to give
He is my joy my righteousness and freedom
My steadfast love my deep and boundless peace

To this I hold my hope is only Jesus
For my life is wholly bound to his
Oh how strange and divine I can sing all is mine
Yet not I but through Christ in me

Verse 2

The night is dark but I am not forsaken
For by my side the Saviour he will stay
I labour on in weakness and rejoicing
For in my need his power is displayed

To this I hold my Shepherd will defend me
Through the deepest valley he will lead
Oh the night has been won and I shall overcome
Yet not I but through Christ in me

Verse 3

No fate I dread I know I am forgiven
The future sure the price it has been paid
For Jesus bled and suffered for my pardon
And he was raised to overthrow the grave

To this I hold my sin has been defeated
Jesus now and ever is my plea
Oh the chains are released I can sing I am free
Yet not I but through Christ in me

Verse 4

With every breath I long to follow Jesus
For he has said that he will bring me home
And day by day I know he will renew me
Until I stand with joy before the throne

To this I hold my hope is only Jesus
All the glory evermore to him
When the race is complete still my lips shall repeat
Yet not I but through Christ in me
(repeat)

When the race is complete still my lips shall repeat
Yet not I but through Christ in me
Yet not I but through Christ in me
