

WELCOME!

We're honored you've decided to spend the morning with us. Please know that we're here to assist you in any way we can with your quest to grow closer to God. Below, you'll find what we'll be doing during today's service. On the right panel, you can get an idea of what happens around Northpoint each week and things we're looking forward to.

WHAT TO EXPECT THIS MORNING

Today, we'll start by reading a short passage from the Bible to focus our attention on God. We'll sing songs of praise to Him. We'll pray to Him. We'll again read from the Bible. We'll hear a message from God to us from the Bible. Then, we'll sing a closing song.

TODAY'S FOCUS

This morning, we'll continue our sermon series in Genesis, Go to the Land I Will Show You. There, we'll be encouraged to know that God's plan for our lives is never limited to the desires or designs of others. He is sovereign in all things, and His purposes are good.

God Meant It for Good

Genesis 50

Dr. Tony Chute, Lead Pastor

Overview: The closing chapter of Genesis demonstrates how Jacob and Joseph continued trusting God in their final days even as they were destined to die in a foreign land. Jacob's passing was exceedingly grievous for Joseph, who spent most of his life away from his father, and for his brothers, who wondered if Joseph might now retaliate against them. Nevertheless, Jacob's final wish is granted as his body is transported back to Canaan, where he is buried alongside Abraham and Isaac. Upon their return to Egypt, Joseph's brothers request forgiveness, but Joseph has already concluded that he cannot hold a grudge against them. Joseph acknowledges God's sovereignty and goodness as the overriding narratives of his life, so he offers comfort and kindness to them accordingly. Jacob and Joseph's faith provide a fitting conclusion to the first book of the Bible as it encourages all believers to trust the Lord in this life and the next.

01. God's plan for our lives is not limited to the desires or designs of others; He is sovereign in all things, and His purposes are always good.

02. Our response to the events in our lives reveals whether we believe in His sovereignty and goodness; let us trust the Lord in life as well as in death.

Go to the Land I Will Show You

1. How does Joseph respond to the death of Jacob? Why is it important for Joseph to fulfill his father's final wishes regarding his burial? Have you ever had to work through grief and make funeral arrangements at the same time? What advice can you give to others who have not been through such an occasion?

2. Jacob's funeral procession was rather large and involved (see verses 7-11). What interest did the Egyptians have in mourning the death of Jacob? Can you think of any famous Christian leaders whose lives have made a global impact upon their death? What does this episode suggest about the impact Christians can have upon non-Christians with their lives?

3. Why were Joseph's brothers concerned about their relationship with Joseph after their father's passing? Is there any evidence that Jacob said what is reported in verses 16-17? What do their actions suggest about their consciences bothering them after all these years? What is the best way to address a guilty conscience?

4. Unpack Joseph's statement in verses 19-21. What does Joseph believe about God's sovereignty in general terms and in more specific or personal terms? What does Joseph believe about God's goodness in every situation? How can you incorporate the truths of God's sovereignty and goodness as you look at events in your own life?

5. Why is it important for Joseph to be buried in the Promised Land also? What does his request suggest about his belief in the future promises of God? When were his final wishes realized? (See Exodus 13:19 and Joshua 24:32).

COME THOU FOUNT (ABOVE ALL ELSE)

Verse 1

Come Thou fount of every blessing
Tune my heart to sing Thy grace
Streams of mercy never ceasing
Call for songs of loudest praise
Teach me some melodious sonnet
Sung by flaming tongues above
Praise the mount I'm fixed upon it
Mount of Thy redeeming love

Verse 2

Here I raise my Ebenezer
Hither by Thy help I'm come
And I hope by Thy good pleasure
Safely to arrive at home
Jesus sought me when a stranger
Wand'ring from the fold of God
He to rescue me from danger
Interposed His precious blood

Verse 3

Oh to grace how great a debtor
Daily I'm constrained to be
Let Thy goodness like a fetter
Bind my wand'ring heart to Thee
Prone to wander Lord I feel it
Prone to leave the God I love
Here's my heart Lord take and seal it
Seal it for Thy courts above

Chorus

Above all else I adore Your Name
Above all else tune my heart to sing Your praise
Above all else I adore Your Name
Above all else tune my heart to sing Your praise
(repeat 3x)

Right beside me all my days
And I will dwell in Your house forever

In the presence of my enemies
Though the arrow flies
And the terror of night is at my door
I'll trust You Lord

Surely goodness
Surely mercy
Right beside me all my days
And I will dwell in Your house forever
And bless Your holy Name
