

WELCOME!

We're honored you've decided to spend the morning with us. Please know that we're here to assist you in any way we can with your quest to grow closer to God. Below, you'll find what we'll be doing during today's service. On the right panel, you can get an idea of what happens around Northpoint each week.

WHAT TO EXPECT THIS MORNING

Today, we'll start by reading a short passage from the Bible to focus our attention on God. We'll sing songs of praise to Him. We'll pray to Him. We'll symbolically celebrate Jesus' life, death, and resurrection with Communion. We'll hear a message from God to us from the Bible. Before being dismissed, we'll sing a closing song, and we'll give to God's work with a money offering. (If you're visiting, please don't feel obligated to give.)

TODAY'S FOCUS

We're working our way through the Old Testament book of Deuteronomy, and today, we find ourselves in chapter 5, where we'll see through song and word, that God's gift of family reminds us that we do not belong to ourselves alone, but have an obligation to serve and care for our family.

PREPARE FOR NEXT WEEK

Next Sunday, we'll again be in the book of Deuteronomy, with the message, You Shall Not Murder, from chapter 5, verse 17. Our focus will be understanding God's gift of life is precious in all respects and at all levels of living; therefore, we have an obligation to promote life for all including the unborn.

Here's one way to try meditating on this passage this week in anticipation of next Sunday. We can call it the Philippians 4:8 Method. Here's part of the verse: "Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is honorable. ..." If we turn Paul's "whatevers" into questions, we have a helpful tool as we meditate on the Scriptures: What is true in Deuteronomy 5:17? What is honorable? You get the idea.

Try the Philippians 4:8 Method this week to help prepare your heart to for next Sunday.
