That You May Believe

[A STUDY THROUGH THE GOSPEL OF JOHN]

WELCOME!

We're honored you've decided to spend the morning with us. Please know that we're here to assist you in any way we can with your quest to grow closer to God. Below, you'll find what we'll be doing during today's service. On the right panel, you can get an idea of what happens around Northpoint each week and things we're looking forward to.

WHAT TO EXPECT THIS MORNING

Today, we'll start by reading a short passage from the Bible to focus our attention on God. We'll sing songs of praise to Him. We'll pray to Him. We'll symbolically celebrate Jesus' life, death, and resurrection with Communion. We'll give to God's work with a money offering. (If you're visiting, please don't feel obligated to give.) We'll hear a message from God to us from the Bible. Then, before being dismissed, we'll sing a closing song.

TODAY'S FOCUS

This morning, we'll continue our sermon series through the Gospel of John, That You May Believe. There, as Jesus washes the disciples' feet, He illustrates how they are to learn from Him, love Him, and serve one another.

LOVING GOD • LOVING ONE ANOTHER • REACHING HIS WORLD

Wash One Another's Feet

John 13:1-20

Dr. Tony Chute, Lead Pastor

Overview: In the final days of His life, Jesus turns his attention to the disciples and demonstrates His love for them to the very end. After a meal, Jesus takes a towel and begins washing the feet of His disciples. Simon Peter initially objects to this humble act of service but retracts his opposition when Jesus tells him that a person who is not washed has no part in Him. Peter then wants to be washed from head to toe, but Jesus informs him that one who has bathed is completely clean. This great act of love by the Lord Jesus illustrates how the disciples are to learn from Him, love Him, and serve one another. Such love, however, does not persuade Judas to confess Jesus as Lord or recognize the disciples as brothers in the faith.

01. Jesus loves His own to the very end.

02. Jesus loves His own by cleansing them from sin.

03. Jesus calls upon His own to love one another.

That You May Believe

1. Note the introduction to this chapter that John provides in verses 1-2. How does John present the spiritual warfare that accompanies Jesus's final days? Is there any doubt in Jesus's mind that God's will shall prevail despite the forthcoming attacks by the devil through Judas? How does Jesus' confidence in God's providence inspire you to serve the Lord in the face of opposition?

2. John is very deliberate in presenting each movement of Jesus as He removes Himself from the table, lays aside His outer garments, stoops to wash the disciples' feet, rises again, and places on his outer garments. How does this imagery reflect Jesus' pre-incarnate state, incarnation, ministry, and ascension? How does this presentation compare with Philippians 2:5-11? How do both texts encourage Christlike humility in the act of serving one another?

3. What objection does Peter raise in verses 6-8? How does his objection reflect that of John the Baptist in Matthew 3:13-17? How does Jesus challenge Peter's thinking in verse 8? Why is it sufficient for Peter to have only his feet washed instead of his whole body? How does this illustration speak toward the need for forgiveness of sins that is once-for-all, and the ongoing need for forgiveness (or, cleansing) by Jesus? See 1 John 1:5-10 for further insight.

4. What is the central lesson Jesus taught His disciples by washing their feet (verses 12-17)? In what ways can we wash one another's feet in a figurative sense? Does Jesus want us to call Him teacher only, or should we also recognize Him as our Lord who has a special call on our lives that we should follow in all things?

5. Note the rebellion that exists within the heart of Judas despite such love shown to him by Jesus. How does John account for this rebellion (verses 2, 18)? Is it possible that a person can give every outward indication that they are a follower of Jesus but still have a hardened heart toward Him? Pray that our hearts will be softened to love Jesus and to serve one another in response to God's great love.

REJOICEVerse 1*

Rejoice in the Lord now and always
Sing it again, we rejoice

We gather in His goodness
A family of grace

In these times we live in

Throughout every season I am sure
We have every reason to praise the Lord

Rejoice and be anxious for nothing
Praying for all that you need
