That You May Believe

[A STUDY THROUGH THE GOSPEL OF JOHN]

WELCOME!

We're honored you've decided to spend the morning with us. Please know that we're here to assist you in any way we can with your quest to grow closer to God. Below, you'll find what we'll be doing during today's service. On the right panel, you can get an idea of what happens around Northpoint each week and things we're looking forward to.

WHAT TO EXPECT THIS MORNING

Today, we'll start by reading a short passage from the Bible to focus our attention on God. We'll sing songs of praise to Him. We'll pray to Him. We'll again read from the Bible. We'll give to God's work with a money offering. (If you're visiting, please don't feel obligated to give.) We'll hear a message from God to us from the Bible. Then, we'll sing a closing song.

TODAY'S FOCUS

This morning, we'll continue our sermon series through the Gospel of John, That You May Believe. There, Jesus will explore the implications of what it means to be united to Him through the work of the Spirit.

SERMON NOTES

Go and Bear Fruit

John 15:1-17

Tyler Van Horssen, Director of Student Ministry

Overview: As mentioned last week, the Holy Spirit unites believers to the Father and Son. In John 15:1-17, Jesus then explores the implications of what it means to be united to Him through the work of the Spirit. Rather than it being a mere theological proposition, this union between Jesus (the Vine) and His disciples (the branches) inevitably leads to His disciples bearing fruit as they abide in Him.

Application:

01. Disciples bear fruit through prayer

02. Disciples bear fruit through obedience

03. Disciples bear fruit through loving one another

QUESTIONS FOR DISCUSSION & DISCOVERY

1. When you think about your union with (abiding in) Christ, do you think about it only in terms of relationality? What about in terms of duty?
2. Why do you think the natural byproduct of union with Christ is bearing fruit?
3. What do you think it means when it says there are branches in the true vine that do not bear fruit (15:2)? Were these branches—that are later thrown into the fire (15:6)—ever really a part of the true vine? Why or why not?
4. Do you see bearing fruit as primarily active or passive? In what ways is it both?
5. What are some ways you can deepen your communion with Christ through prayer?
6. One of the ways your fruit can abide (15:16) is through sharing the gospel. What are some ways you can incorporate evangelism into your daily life? Do you currently have someone you are sharing the gospel with?
7. What should loving one another as Christ has loved you (15:12) look like? What should it look like for you at Northpoint? What should it look like for you in your neighborhood or at your work?
8. What do you think it looks like for your joy in Christ to be full (15:11)? Does your joy in Christ change based on your circumstances? Why or why not?

CHRIST OUR HOPE IN LIFE AND DEATH

Verse 1

What is our hope in life and death?
Christ alone, Christ alone
What is our only confidence?
That our souls to Him belong
Who holds our days within His hand?
What comes apart from His command?
And what will keep us to the end?
The love of Christ in which we stand

Chorus

O sing Hallelujah!
Our hope springs eternal
O sing Hallelujah!
Now and ever we confess
Christ our hope in life and death

Verse 2

What truth can calm the troubled soul?
God is good, God is good
Where is His grace and goodness known
In our great Redeemer's blood
Who holds our faith when fears arise?
Who stands above the stormy trial?
Who sends the waves that bring us nigh
Unto the shore, the rock of Christ

Chorus

O sing Hallelujah!
Our hope springs eternal
O sing Hallelujah!
Now and ever we confess
Christ our hope in life and death

Verse 3

Unto the grave, what shall we sing?
Christ He lives, Christ He lives
And what reward will heaven bring?
Everlasting life with Him
There we will rise to meet the Lord
Then sin and death will be destroyed
And we will feast in endless joy
When Christ is ours forevermore

Chorus

O sing Hallelujah!
Our hope springs eternal
O sing Hallelujah!
Now and ever we confess
Christ our hope in life and death

Chorus

O sing Hallelujah!
Our hope springs eternal
O sing Hallelujah!
Now and ever we confess
Christ our hope in life and death
